Exception 2: One (1) camping tent trailer in the stowed configuration, and / or one (1) unmounted slide-in camper / camper cap shall not count toward the one (1)-vehicle storage limit.

723.5.4 It shall be prohibited for any recreational vehicle or recreational park trailer to be lived in or occupied within any structure.

723.5.5 When occupied or in the set-up mode, all recreational vehicles and recreational park trailers shall be provided with running water from a potable water supply and shall have at least one toilet of the flush type connected to an approved sanitary sewer, septic system or holding tank.

Exception 1: An approved potable water storage tank shall be permitted in lieu of a running water supply.

Exception 2: Where the occupant(s) of the recreational vehicle or recreational park trailer have physical and legal access to potable water within 250 feet of the site.

Exception 3: Where the occupant(s) of the recreational vehicle or recreational park trailer have physical and legal access to toilet facilities within 500 feet of the site.

723.5.6 Flood Hazard Areas. All recreational vehicles and recreational park trailers placed on sites within special flood hazard areas shall be either:

- (1) On the site for fewer than 180 consecutive days and be maintained fully licensed and ready for highway use (i.e. on its wheels or jacking system, attached to the site only by quick disconnect type utilities, and with no permanently attached additions); or
- (2) In compliance with all applicable standards of National Flood Insurance Program Regulations for the elevation and anchoring of "manufactured homes".

723.5.7 if any recreational vehicle or recreational park trailer is set up and / or occupied for greater than 14 days, written permission shall be required from the Code Enforcement Officer. The Code Enforcement Officer shall grant written permission if after investigation he/she shall find that all of the above provisions have been complied with and finds that the recreational vehicle or recreational park trailer will not be a menace to the surrounding property or the public health of the community.

Exception: Recreational vehicles and recreational park trailers set up and occupied within approved campgrounds or vehicle sales lots.
